Council Reports

Council President Yeager: Attended the ribbon cutting of the Wharton Group Home on Thomas Street. One of the new residents was there with his mother and the look on his face made it all worth it.

Councilman Binkoski: He confirmed with Chief Young that we would be using the existing signage for the road and parking ordinances we just passed.

Councilwoman Jones: She attended the Board of Health meeting last month. She recently attended the Library Board Re-Organization meeting as well.

Councilman Norton: He attended the ribbon cutting ceremony for the Wharton Group Home. They did a very nice job for the people who will live there.

Councilwoman Vasquez: She saw the new street sweeper in action and it did a great job.

Councilwoman Wickenheisser: She was also impressed with the new street sweeper.

Mayor Chegwidden's Report: He attended the Pillar Care ribbon cutting. While there, he met a young man who was very excited to be getting his own room. He thanked John Crimi for donating the property and Pillar for putting the project together. He attended the Library Re-Organization meeting and they indicated they will be putting their agendas and minutes online from now on. He had the opportunity to attend the National League Conference in Washington D.C. One topic of discussion was cyber security warnings regarding people trying to break into water systems across the country. Mr. Quillinan will be putting together a presentation to explain how the water system works and what we are doing to keep it safe. The JIF is requiring all employees to complete a mandatory Cyber Security Training as well.

He also attended and moderated a seminar for newly elected officials where they discussed topics such as: Purchasing, Budgeting, Labor Relations, Municipal Clerks and OPRA reform.

He informed everyone that we've closed on the property at 262 W. Dewey Avenue and would be going out to bid to have it knocked down, along with the property at 123 N. Main Street. We should have more information for the property off Harry Shupe Boulevard by the end of the week.
